RE: Chriss W. Street v. End of the Road Trust, et al.
Case No. 07-cv-65 (***)

Dear Magistrate Judge Thyng:

At Your Honor's request, the parties conferred about the possibility of having the Motion to Remand decided by you. The Respondents, End of the Road Trust and ATII, are unwilling to consent to that process. As a result, Mr. Street respectfully requests that, at your earliest convenience, Your Honor advise the Chief Judge of the District Court that the Motion to Remand is fully briefed, ripe for decision and should be assigned for consideration by a judge of the District Court on an expedited basis.

Counsel is available at the convenience of the Court to discuss this matter further.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Charlene D. Davis
